USED CLOTHING COLLECTION DRIVE FOR HOMELESS ORPHANS IN KENYA...Please help!....provide vital funding for an orphanage in Ikumbi, a small village just outside Nairobi in Kenya. The Orphanage cares for homeless children, providing them with education, meals, clothes, medication and accommodation. The collection takes place Thursday, 10th June at Piltown Community Centre. Please drop off any items before 12 noon. We will take away your unwanted used clothing, household textiles & used footwear. Collections carried out in association with Dochas Nasamu (Galway based Charity)

PILTOWN AFC Our U-13 girls traveled to Athlone last weekend as Kilkenny and Leinster Champions at U-13 indoor soccer. On Saturday morning they played Cavan in the semi-final and came out as comfortable 2-0 winners with goals from Eva Flanagan and Chloe Holden. On Sunday morning they played Clonmel in the Final and led 1-0 at half time thanks to a Lisa McCarthy goal. Piltown tired in the second half and Clonmel got 2 goals within a minute of each other and another at the end. Final score 3-1 to Clonmel. Team: Aoife Norris, Ellie Cooney, Eva Flanagan, Chloe Holden, Aislinn Carroll, Lisa McCarthy, Ciara Whelan, Shauna Coady. Well done to all the girls for an excellent performance & thanks to local business for their sponsorship.
